CONSTIPATION MUNYON'S PAW-PAW PILLS

Munyon's Paw-Paw Pills are unlike all other laxatives or cathartics. They coax the liver into activity by gentle methods. They do not scour; they do not grip; they do not weaken; they do not disturb the system. They start all the secretions of the liver and stomach in a way that soon puts these organs in a healthy condition and corrects constipation. In my opinion constipation is responsible for most ailments. There are forty-two feet of human bowels, which is really a sewer pipe. When this pipe becomes clogged, the whole system becomes poisoned, causing biliousness, indigestion and impure blood, which often produces rheumatism and kidney ailments. No woman who suffers with constipation or any liver complaint can expect to have a clear complexion, or enjoy good health.

Munyon's Paw-Paw Pills are a tonic to the stomach, liver and nerves. They invigorate instead of weakening; they enrich the blood instead of impoverishing it; they enable the stomach to get all the nourishment from food that is put into it.

These pills contain no calomel, no dope, they are soothing, healing and stimulating. They school the bowels to act without physic. Price 25 cents.

The capable manager of the evening's musical program.

Mrs. Howard L. Whitlock arranged the entire pantomime for Eugene Field's "Wynken, Blynken and Nod," one of the prettiest numbers on the program, having composed the music and made the typical "wooden shoe," so necessary for the representation.

Miss Ada Arundel's "Dolly Song," composed of beautiful drills and music, was greatly enjoyed and applauded, as was the entire program. At the close of the evening, Reginald Walker, the master of ceremonies, presented Mrs. William Gemmell with a superb bouquet of American Beauty roses as a token of appreciation for her successful manner in which she had conducted the entertainment. Mrs. Gemmell expressed her appreciation for the flowers and for the excellent help afforded her by the ladies with whom she had been associated in the flower fete.

WILLIAM AND MARY EDUCATIONAL RALLY

Interesting and Instructive Program Given at the Old Institution.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WILLIAMSBURG, Va., April 25.—The educational rally, which has been very nearly the only thing talked about for the past month among the students, came off last night in the college chapel, and was a success in every way. The meeting was marked up by and held under the auspices of the senior class of William and Mary College. The object of the meeting was to arouse interest in the educational problems that confront Virginia, and to set the busy minds of the students to work upon such problems.

As William and Mary is a State school, and its avowed object, the turning out of trained teachers, it was most fitting that such a meeting should be held here. The meeting was significant inasmuch as it shows the great interest that is being taken in the educational situation, and bright hopes of the result of such interest may well be entertained.

Gathering of Alumni.

Aside from the educational part of the meeting, the rally had another object, that of bringing alumni of this institution in contact with their alma mater. The action taken by the senior class in bringing about this rally will, it is hoped, be perpetuated, and that in the future each year will see a similar gathering of alumni who have gone forth to wage war against old and unscientific principles of teaching before the senior class to give to those who are yet to take part in the fight the benefit of their experience.

Every effort had been made to make the rally a success, and a large and enthusiastic audience filled the chapel. The meeting was presided over by President C. E. Koonz, of the senior class, and the addresses were all delivered by alumni of William and Mary, who have made themselves well known in educational circles during the past few years. The meeting was opened by Mr. Koonz, who introduced Professor H. E. Bennett. Professor Bennett delivered the address of welcome.

Professor Hugh Byrd, formerly in charge of the chair of education and philosophy at William and Mary, introduced the speakers of the evening, and his happy remarks upon his old-time students did much to keep the audience interested.

Speakers and Subjects.

The following is a list of the speakers, and their respective subjects: "Some Thoughts Suggested by the English Schools," Principal Arthur Wright, Richmond; "Needs of a Principal from a Principal's Standpoint," Principal W. Hodges, Danville, Va.; "Needs of a Superintendent from a Superintendent's Standpoint," Superintendent A. H. Foreman, Norfolk; "Virginia's Need of Educators," Inspector Jackson Davis, Petersburg, Va.; "William and Mary Men as Leaders," Principal Ernest Shamen, Norfolk; "College Spirit," Dr. J. S. Wilson. Two other addresses, "Athletics," by Principal J. A. Carson, Port Norfolk, and "Value and Rating of Normal Schools," by Superintendent Arthur Maddox, Henrico county, were to have been delivered, but were omitted, owing to the unavoidable absence of Messrs. Carson and Maddox.

During the excitement following the discovery of the fire, the electric lights went out, adding to the confusion. Trunks were thrown out of the windows and some of the guests carried their clothes down the stairs in armfuls. The fire was soon extinguished, the damage amounting to only a few hundred dollars.

Among the guests were Mrs. Van Wyck, wife of former Judge Augustus H. Van Wyck; Mrs. James Osborne, wife of a prominent New York lawyer; and Mrs. Olive E. Eames, of the Metropolitan Opera House.

The Kenilworth, the other large tourist hotel here, was destroyed by fire about two weeks ago, the guests escaping in time. It is said to-night that the damage to Battery Park Hotel laundry, which was partially destroyed by fire at 4 o'clock this morning, will amount to more than $1,000. The insurance on the entire laundry is placed at $1,500. The origin of the fire is unknown. The damage to the engine-room of the hotel proper will not exceed $300.

The 200 guests of the hotel were awakened when the alarm was turned in, but all returned to their rooms later when it was seen that the hotel itself was in no danger.
